Bus Safety Concern on Jurgess Road

Good morning,

I am writing to inform you about an incident that occurred this morning involving our “Orange” bus on Jurgess Road. Due to icy conditions, the bus struggled at the end of its route and was unable to ascend a hill.

The driver responded appropriately by backing the bus down the hill to a safe location. At that point, another bus was dispatched to transfer the students safely to a different bus. I am pleased to report that all students arrived safely at school without incident. Everyone was back to school by 10:30am.

Both the Transportation Director and I were present onsite to assist and to ensure the well-being of our students throughout this situation. Please rest assured that student safety remains our highest priority.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
